Fishing

Fishing on the River Sheen

- Season- March 15th - September 30th.
- Permission - Sheen Falls Lodge Estate.
- State Licences- Available from the hotel.

The Sheen River rises in the Caha Mountains and flows deep through the valley for 15 miles before it spills into the Kenmare Bay. The first four miles to Dromanassig Bridge holds eight secluded pools, which are highly recommended fishing locations. The Sheen Pool, the Flat Pool, the Sand Pool and the Weir Pool just above the Sheen Falls are the most popular.

The most prevalent fish is the Wild Atlantic Salmon however Brown Trout are also to be found in the Sheen River.

The run of Salmon commences quietly in March and April, the main numbers comprise of Grilse who enter the river in late May to September with the best fishing in the months of June and July. The angler can enjoy the no bait restriction as spinning, worm, shrimp and fly are all allowed.
