Announced today, Wednesday 8th October, in Paris. Sheen Falls Lodge, Kenmare, Co. Kerry, is proud to share that it has been awarded Two MICHELIN Keys by the 2025 MICHELIN Guide, signifying its place among the world's most exceptional hotels. This distinction underscores the property's commitment to character, design, service, and guest experience.

The MICHELIN Keys are a new global hotel distinction launched by The MICHELIN Guide. Two MICHELIN Keys indicate an “exceptional stay”, a property that is unique in every way, where a memorable experience is always a guarantee. A hotel of character and charm, run with obvious pride and considerable care.

General Manager Brian Loughnane : “We are honoured to be recognised once again by the MICHELIN Guide, joining this elite group of hotels recognised for outstanding hospitality. This achievement in retaining Two MICHELIN keys is a testament to our entire team for their consistent dedication and unwavering commitment to creating a truly memorable experience for every guest who visits Sheen Falls Lodge”

Sheen Falls Lodge was first awarded Two MICHELIN Keys in 2024 when the programme launched.

About Sheen Falls Lodge

Sheen Falls Lodge, the five-star country house hotel is located in the heart of the Kerry countryside, offers a serene and luxurious getaway on the outskirts of Kenmare. Since opening its doors in 1991, Sheen Falls Lodge has crafted a reputation for quality and outstanding customer service, firmly establishing itself as one of the country's most prestigious establishments. Sheen Falls Lodge is part of the Relais & Châteaux international luxury hotel group.

Sheen Falls Lodge boasts both an award-winning fine dining restaurant, The Falls Restaurant, and a fresh approach to contemporary dining, The Stables Brasserie. Both showcase a menu featuring the best of locally sourced seasonal ingredients. The hotel's Easanna Wellness & Spa offers a pampering sanctuary for guests with a range of treatments from leading luxury Spa brands SEABODY, Elemis & Ground Wellbeing.

The Sheen Falls Estate spans three hundred acres of stunning Kerry countryside and offers a range of activities for guests including falconry, clay pigeon shooting, horse riding, fishing, tennis, and walking.

About The Ring of Kerry Golf Club by Sheen Falls Lodge

The Ring of Kerry Golf Club, owned and managed by Sheen Falls Lodge, is a hidden gem located just five miles from the lodge, with complimentary transfers available for guests wishing to enjoy this exceptional golfing experience. Designed by renowned architects Eddie Hackett and Ron Kirby, the 18-hole, 6,923-yard, par 72 course offers winding tree-lined fairways and breathtaking views over the Kenmare Estuary.

Notable holes include the picturesque 6th, "Ladies View," with a dramatic tee shot, and the challenging 14th, which requires precision through an avenue of mature trees. Set between the Caha Mountains and the MacGillycuddy Reeks, the course provides sweeping vistas of the bay from every hole, making it suitable for golfers of all skill levels.

The club also boasts a newly renovated restaurant and bar, Nua Vista, where visitors can savour Mediterranean-inspired dishes while soaking in the panoramic views.
